Distance Learning Module

Please note:

All requirements highlighted in yellow must be each candidate's individual work.

All other requirements can be shared work if candidates work for and will be training at the same school or centre.

- Write an environmental risk assessment for Rebound Therapy in your school or centre.
- List the potential benefits you perceive of Rebound Therapy specific to 4 students in your school or centre.
- Detail each student's condition or conditions
- A full risk assessment for each student, detailing any special precautions or considerations that may be necessary due to the nature of the activity and the student's condition.
- Describe your objectives for each student over a half term period.
- Provide your student record sheets showing the outcomes of your sessions on a week to week basis. These can be the Winstrada record sheets. Progress can be recorded either in the conventional manner (giving ticks for exercises completed) or for those with more complex needs; using the Huddersfield Functional Index.
- Note any observations you have made as to the effectiveness of the programme.
- Describe any changes you have made to the programme and why
- Explain your view as to the outcome or effectiveness of the sessions when the half term period is complete.
- Also, advise on other treatment or therapies that the child is receiving and if and how the two may complement each other.
- Write out your course delivery schedule (running order) showing your plan of how you will deliver the 10 hour Rebound Therapy course to your staff. The 10 hours can be over 2 days or 4 half days.
- Include in these notes how the course will meet your school's existing curriculum objectives.
- Write a statement of your school's Health & Safety and Manual Handling policies relevant to Rebound Therapy.
- Complete the Candidate Assessment Records papers
(download this document from this link: www.reboundtherapy.org/levelonetutor.php)

- Design a basic Rebound Therapy staff training course certificate for your school or centre. This will be the certificate that you will award to staff who complete the courses you will be running. List the aspects covered in the course. (See your own Rebound Therapy course certificate for an example.)

The following text must be included under the staff member's name:

“has been assessed as competent in the necessary knowledge, safety and teaching skills to lead basic level Rebound Therapy sessions within the above named school or centre”

“Level 1 Rebound Therapy Trainer Certificate”

The following text must also be included on the bottom of the certificate:

“Validation number.....

(to obtain this, the candidate or tutor should complete the validation number request form at www.reboundtherapy.org/validation.php)”

For further clarification, see the example certificate on your course information via the weblink: www.reboundtherapy.org/levelonetutor.php

- Have all the above papers viewed and approved by your head teacher or centre manager, who should make any notes regarding changes required in order to meet the school's policies and objectives.
- Have your head teacher or centre manager email our office to confirm that all your work meets with the school's policies and objectives.
- Send your papers to the office for our review. We would prefer you sent them by email but CD-ROM or paper copies are acceptable, so is the use of DropBox or Google Drive by arrangement.. If sending paper, please post two complete sets.
- Should any changes to the papers be necessary, we will inform you and your head teacher / centre manager.
- When the distance learning module is complete, we will advise a date and venue for the final assessment and presentation.
